

DR. PUSHPANJALI SWAIN

M.Sc., M.Phill, Ph.D. (Statistics)

Reader and Acting Head,
Department of Statistics and Demography,
National Institute of Health and Family Welfare,
New Delhi 110067 (India)

Contact Nos.	EPBX: 91 11 26166441, 2615959, 26107773, 26105743 - Ext. No-379
Direct/Fax	Fax: 91 11 26101623
Email	Pushpanjali.swain@gmail.com , drpswain@yahoo.co.in

Profession Experience and Peer Recognition

- She is currently serving the Institute as Reader and Acting Head, Department of Statistics and Demography. She has 14 years of post Ph.D experience at different capacity in various organizations before joining in the NIHFW as lecturer and then senior lecturer in the field of Health Statistics and Demography.
- Dr. Swain has been contributed 14 papers and published in different journals at National and International level. She has a monograph in her credit titled Health and Demographic Profile of Orissa, published by NIHFW. During her academic career, she has been conducting several training courses, research studies and consultancy services. Recently she participated in District level Household Survey III monitoring in four states in the country.
- Dr. Swain is actively associated with various professional bodies such as Indian Society of Medical Statistics, Indian Association for the Study of Population and Indo-French Technical Association, ISSAH, etc. She was in expert group in WHO funded project for development of Health Profile India.
- She has been participating and presenting papers in various national and international conferences. She was invited to Reunion Island [Indian Ocean area] to present a paper on Status of Reproductive Health in India in October 2005. She participated in the WHO fellowship training programme on Biostatistics and Epidemiology in Thailand in 2007.
- Her areas of research interest are Demography of Ageing, Health of Marginalized/Vulnerable Groups, Reproductive and Child Health and GIS in Health, Health management information system, Indirect estimation using demographic techniques, Monitoring and evaluation of health programmes, surveys and studies.